GREAT NEWS.

Marietta Will Get the Dam Beyond All Doubt.

Marietta has every reason in the world to congratulate herself over the very bright prospects of having a dam in the Ohio river, just below town, a project which will enhance to a great degree Marietta's harbor conditions. and facilitate steamboating generally. That the prospect is bright-aye, the dam almost in sight, is evidenced by Miss Castello is a sweet, pretty girl, ineteen years of age,possessed of very considerable versatinty of talent both in elocution and singing.

Her really strong and artistic part was in the garden scene of Romeo and Juliet, where she was alternately those classic lovers of the warring houses of Capulet and Montague. Here she showed ingenuity and nice art, with a firm grasp on a difficult subject. As a singer the young lady has a clear soprano voice of very pleasant
